

SISTER JOSEPHA REGAN, CDP
1915 -2017

Sister Josepha Regan, CDP, entered eternal life on June 20, 2017 at the age of 101. She was the fifth of seven children born to Patrick and Amelia (Hebert) Regan and was given the baptismal name, Lily Mae. Sister Josepha was born October 29, 1915 in Iota, Louisiana. She answered God's call to become a Sister of Divine Providence on September 1, 1932 and professed first vows on June 27, 1934. Sister Josepha began her ministerial life as a teacher at St. Mary Academy in Palestine, Texas.

She received her Bachelor of Arts and Masters in Education from Our Lady of the Lake College. Sister Josepha served as a first grade teacher for a total of 27 years and in the upper grades for an additional 30 years. She is grateful to her congregation for the allowing her to serve in family ministry for 14 years. Her jovial and happy personality prevailed throughout her life. In her in-house autobiography she stated, "Join the C.D.P'S and see the world!"

She is survived by numerous nieces, nephews, and their families and all her other Sisters of Divine Providence. She was preceded in death by her parents Patrick and Amelia Regan and siblings: Reverend Patrick, Clyde (Nora), Mitt and Joseph Regan and Mabel Jardel and Mamie Duplechin.

The Rosary is Friday, June 23, 2017 at 4:30 p.m. and the Wake is at 6:30 p.m. A Mass of Resurrection will be Saturday, June 24, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. All services will be in Annunciation Chapel at Our Lady of the Lake Convent Center.

In lieu of flowers, you may wish to make a memorial contribution to the Sisters of Divine Providence, 515 S.W. 24th Street, San Antonio, TX 78207-4619.
