

2023 PROSO Zoom Lenten Journey: Tenacious Hope

Dates: March 1, 15 and 29 (three Wednesday nights during Lent)

Times: 7:00-8:30 Eastern Time; 6:00-7:30 Central Time

Location: by Zoom*

Description: Lent is the perfect time to seek God with greater tenacity and open our hearts to Christ's love and grace. Learn something new, stifle old fears and embrace the challenges set before us as People of Providence in our world today.

The 2023 PROSO Zoom Lenten Journey: Tenacious Hope includes a reflection guide and a safe space for personal conversion and compassionate encounter with several socially marginalized groups. The three evening series includes input, prayer, sharing and personal testimony meant to move us outside our comfort zones. Programs last for an hour, followed by an additional optional 30 minutes of conversation and community building.

- March 1 - Immigration
- March 15 - Racism
- March 29 0 LGBTQ+ Community

Cost: $50 for one or all "come as you can" Lenten evenings.

Zoom: Working knowledge of Zoom is required. You will receive the link 48 hours before each evening and again on the day of the event. Register at least 24 hours in advance for links and the journey guide. (Technological assistance is not available on the evening of the program.)

To Register: at <https://cdptexas.org/proso-current-offering>

* Groups who gather in-person for the Zoom presentations and sharing should contact Sr. Joyce for advance registration information and materials.

For more information or help with registration: contact proso@cdptexas.org or call 210-707-8400.